

PRESS ANNOUNCEMENT

The Board of Directors of Lafarge Cement Zimbabwe Limited (“the Company”) would like to inform shareholders and valued stakeholders that following the exit of Associated International Cement Limited from the business, the Company will now be trading as (t/a) Khayah Cement pending finalization of the registration of the trade name by the Registrar of Companies.

The Company is reconstituting the composition of the Board of Directors as well as the necessary Board Committees. In this latter regard, the announcement of the relevant appointments will be made shortly.

The public is advised that these processes will have no material effect on either the quality or availability of any of the Company’s range of products as well as its overall operations.

By order of the Board,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Arnold Z. Chikazhe', written over a horizontal line.

Arnold Z. Chikazhe
Acting Company Secretary
